

ALCEÑO MONASTRELL 12 MONTHS 2006

D.O. Jumilla—85% Monastrell, 15% Syrah

Heralding from a 140-year old family owned winery in the Mediterranean town of Jumilla, ALCEÑO combines a rich history of tradition and quality with a distinctly modern style. The wine is the result of a coupage of the estate's highest quality Monastrell and Syrah grapes, followed by four months of aging in American and French oak barrels. The result is a perfect harmony of vibrant fruit, rich aromas and new oak.

PENIN GUIDE TO SPANISH WINE 2010

"The 2006 Alcenó Monastrell 12 Meses Barrica contains 15% Syrah and was aged for 12 months in French and American oak. Medium purple-colored, it sports an enticing nose of cedar, mineral, pencil lead, espresso, violets, and blueberry. Succulent and forward on the palate, this smooth-textured offering has no hard edges. Drink this excellent value over the next 5 years"
