

BODEGAS PAGOS DE MOGAR ROBLE 2007

D.O. Ribera del Duero—100% Tempranillo ('Tinta del Pais')

Pagos de Mogar is a small winery formed by a husband and wife team, and is located in the town of Valbuena, very close to the Vega Sicilia estate. 2004 was a vintage rated 'excelente' by the regional regulator. Only 50,000 bottles of the 2004 Roble were produced, and the grapes were hand-picked and sorted. Aged 5 months in American oak barrels, this is one of the most fruit-forward wines we have tasted from the region.

POINTS

WINE ADVOCATE (06/11)

Pagos de Mogar's 2008 Roble (100% Tempranillo) spent 6 months in French and American oak. It exhibits an attractive perfume of cigar box, Asian spices, incense, and blackberry. Firmly structured on the palate with lively acidity and a bit of fine grained tannin, the wine is well-balanced by ample savory fruit and a sense of elegance. Drink this solid value over the next 6 years.
