2007

D.O. Ribera del Duero—100% ‘Tinta del Pais’

Bodegas Torrederos is a small cooperative winery founded in 2000 by four grape growing families that previously sold its harvests to other Ribera del Duero wineries. Having an understanding of the great potential of their vineyards and of the wines they could produce themselves, they decided to enter into the market with their own label and start their venture. The four families brought together some 100ha of vineyards planted with Tempranillo.

WINE ADVOCATE, 2/08

“The 2007 Torrederos Roble is 100% Tempranillo aged for 6 months in French and American oak. Medium crimson-colored, it delivers a nose of cedar, mineral, spice box, violets and black cherry. Medium-to-full bodied on the palate, it has plenty of spicy black fruit, good depth, enough structure to evolve for 1-2 years, and a medium-long finish. This excellent value will provide pleasant drinking over the next 5 years.”
