

TORREDEROS “RESERVA” 2003

D.O. Ribera del Duero—100% ‘Tinta del Pais’

Bodegas Torrederos is a small cooperative winery founded in 2000 by four grape growing families that previously sold its harvests to other Ribera del Duero wineries. Having an understanding of the great potential of their vineyards and of the wines they could produce themselves, they decided to enter into the market with their own label and start their venture. The four families brought together some 100ha of vineyards planted with Tempranillo.

POINTS

WINE ADVOCATE (06/10)

The 2004 Torrederos Reserva was aged in oak for 18 months. It displays an expressive bouquet of wood smoke, pencil lead, mineral, incense, violets, and blackberry. Dense, layered, and opulent on the palate, this impeccably balanced offering has 6-8 years of aging potential. It is a fine example of the great 2004 vintage in Ribera del Duero. Drink it from 2016 to 2034.
